

Waltham
Forest
Walks

Leyton
Loops

The 'Leyton Loops' are suggested short walks to be tried separately, or joined together for a longer walk.

Leaflets covering the full series of walks should be available from Council information centres; they can also be downloaded from this website :

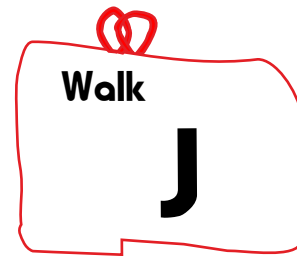

www.walthamforestwalks.info

where you will find walk updates and a wider selection of walking routes in the Borough of Waltham Forest with information about local history and interesting buildings.

We welcome suggestions as to how these routes and the leaflets can be improved. Contact the Voluntary Co-ordinator, David Boote phone 0845 009 0073, email david_boote@yahoo.com

from Leyton Tube Station to Langthorne Park

3/4 mile (a kilometre and a bit)
on firm surfaces, mainly level

This route is suitable for wheelchairs and children's buggies if you are careful

Walk
J

from Leyton Tube Station to Langthorne Park
¾ mile (a kilometre and a bit) on firm surfaces, mainly level

Leyton Tube Station (Central Line), buses 58, 69, 97, 158. Turn left out of the station.

Go down the steps to Goodall Road (or keep to the main road and then turn left into Goodall Road)

Walk along Goodall Road to the end and then turn right into Elmore Road.

At the junction turn left along Langthorne Road beside the New Testament (formerly the Fetter Lane Congregational) Church

Pass St Patrick's Cemetery (where are buried the last victim of Jack the Ripper and nuns commemorated in a poem of Gerard Manley Hopkins)

Pass the Birkbeck Tavern (a traditional pub) and keep straight ahead at the crossroads.

Pass the Hospital and keep left at the next junction, still on Langthorne Road.

Langthorne Road becomes Thorne Close and goes past healthcare buildings and the Workhouse Chapel

At the end turn left along Leytonstone High Road

Go into Langthorne Park past the Click cafe.

Walk around Langthorne Park

If you leave the way you went into the Park, bus 257 goes along Leytonstone High Road. By turning left along the High Road you will reach Harrow Green, Cathall Road and the W14 bus route to Leyton High Road and Library
